

Chateau Montagnac

Region: Languedoc

Sleeps: 14 Bedrooms: 10

Overview

To the south of Montpellier, between the sea and garrigue, the Chateau Montagnac has been recently renovated offering a combination of history, contemporary elements and designer furniture. The 160 hectare property, with 60 hectares of vineyard and 100 hectares garrigue, also enjoys a 3 hectare park and a 9th century chapel at the castle. Very well located close to the lovely old town of Pézenas, the modern city of Montpellier and the Mediterranean beaches.

Description

To the south of Montpellier, between the sea and natural garrigue-covered hills, the Chateau De Valjoyeuse has been recently renovated by a famous international architect successfully combining elements of history with contemporary design. It offers 800 square metres of living space - which is huge - including a vaulted living room and dining room, and a majestic reception room with piano.

The 160 hectares property, with 60 hectares of vineyard and 100 hectares garrigue, also enjoys a 3 hectare park and a 9th century chapel at the castle.

The property is one of the best wine producers of Languedoc-Roussillon, with wines regularly awarded in the most prestigious wine magazine (Bettane&Desseauve, La Revue du Vin de France). Imagine sitting out under the stars enjoying the wine that was produced on this very property - Bliss!

A 13 metre swimming pool and a tennis court (built in 2014) will keep you fit and busy!

A quiet and peaceful ambiance.

Valjoyeuse literally translates as 'Happy Valley' and we can see why!
