Overview

Characterful 14th century Provencal holiday home near Mazan, ideal for history lovers or people that are looking for something unusual. This 3 bedroom maison comfortably sleeps up to 8 guests and features beautifully manicured grounds with private pool and terraces. Restaurants within 150m.

Description

La Maison d'Histoire, a holiday villa in Provence, is ideal for history lovers. The house, built between the 14th and 16th centuries, has been restored to preserve its beautiful architectural elements, including mullioned windows, fireplaces, beams and a stone spiral staircase. This hillside property also includes an expansive terraced garden and a 10x5m swimming pool with diving fossa set in a stone courtyard.

On the home's ground level, you'll find a modern kitchen, a bathroom and a dining room with wooden shutters and beamed ceiling. The first floor holds two bedrooms, a bathroom and a living room with medieval fireplace, terracotta floors and a TV. The top floor is a spacious bedroom with a 360 degree view of the Provencal hills, a private bathroom and a large terrace.

Dine outside under a vine-covered trellis, and enjoy a summer kitchen with barbecue. When you're ready to explore the Luberon, you can walk to Oppede le Vieux, a charming hilltop village with a historic church and ruins. Stay active by hiking and mountain biking, or drive to Cavaillon's (9 km) weekly market, famous for melons.

Location

In the village there are 2 restaurants (150 m from house)
And at 2 kms (Oppede New village )a bakery, a restaurant and a pizzeria
The supermarket is 5kms away (in Coustellet) as well as a fish market, a butcher and several bakeries .

The Provençal way of life is one that's deeply tempting for anyone who's been feeling the need to get away from it all. This is a place where the Mediterranean weather turns fields of corn and lavender into picture-perfect backdrops, where you can sip your locally bought wine and enjoy the landscapes before heading out and tackling them head-on with a range of great activities for families, groups of friends and adventurous foodies.

The house is located in Provence, in the heart of a North Luberon historical village situated 35km from Avignon train station, 65km from Marseille's airport and 15km from the A7 motorway.

There are nearby shops and restaurants within 5km from the house as well as a golf course only 20 minutes away.
