Description

This gorgeous house is located in the Golf de Massane in Baillargues village, very near Montpellier. The property offers an extensive outside space with a very well-looked after landscaped garden and comfortable indoor living space, it enjoys total privacy in its walled garden and swimming pool, though it has direct access to the Golf de Massane on one side and a semi-private tennis court on the other side.

The terrace and garden of approximately 2600 m2 offer a quiet and relaxing spot from which to enjoy the Mediterranean summer lifestyle: refresh in the pool, prepare barbecues, alfresco diners, catch a bit of sun in the loungers, play a game of golf, tennis or ping pong with the children or simply indulge in a good book ensconced in a sofa chair in the shade.

The house interior conveys a warm atmosphere drawn from modern decorative elements; there is no doubt that you will feel immediately welcome. Past the hallway, there is the large south-facing open living room and dining area, together with the adjacent well-equipped kitchen. The garden can be accessed directly either from the living room or from the kitchen which both open straight onto a pleasant wooden terrace overlooking to swimming pool. The ground floor also contains a separate utility room, 3 double bedrooms, one of which with en-suite shower room and the others sharing a bathroom and with straight access onto the south facing terrace. On the first floor, two very large double bedrooms share a shower room.

The property stands as a good base to explore Montpellier's medieval city centre, play a round of golf in Massane Golf Club, play tennis in the semi-private court, and why not venture out for day trips to discover Nimes or the Pont du Gard (50 km away), or sunbathe on the nearby beaches within 20 minute drive from the house?

Sandy Mediterranean beaches just 20 minutes.
