Description

Set in a lovely village just outside Toulouse and a few kilometers from Carcassonne, Albi and the beautiful villages of the Lauragais, this property is situated in an ideal location to discover the great cultural variety of the Occitanie region : the Cité de l'Espace, Airbus, and of course Carcassonne Medieval city.

With its 5.7 acres park, rose garden and pool, the domain will surely seduce you; the family house will enlighten you with its 19th century enfilade entertainment rooms, its high ceilings, tall windows and contemporary stylish interior decoration.

Situated at the entrance of the village, the house is facing south to enjoy maximum sunshine. The large reception rooms in enfilade, overlook the gardens on both sides.

The ground floor is composed of two large living rooms, one with a lovely fireplace; a separate stylish dining room which can seat up to 16 people then connects to the generous contemporary eat in kitchen. On the east side of the same floor, a small office room leads to a spacious master bedrooms with its ensuite shower room, and on the north eastern side an extensive master bedroom with its ensuite bathroom overlooks the gardens.

A tall staircase leads to the first floor, where 4 south facing double bedrooms and 2 triple rooms share two bathrooms, one modern bathroom with bath and shower and one shower room.

The south facing garden in front of the house is equipped with a long dining table, a barbecue and outside lighting for diners al fresco.

Walking down the side alley to the right a boules field is waiting for its players under the trees, further away in the garden, a large 12m x 4,5m saltwater and heated swimming pool is set in the sunshine and surrounded by a grass lawn.

Everything in this property invites the travellers to a relaxing experience, this house is ideal for large family or friends reunions, and perfectly suited to host large groups in a very comfortable way.
