Description

Located on the outskirts of St Remy-de-Provence and yet sufficiently far away from the town centre to be regarded as a countryside property. Mas du Soleil was once part of a large farm, the buildings of which have very recently been lovingly converted into a very stylish mas with over 600sqm of living space. Decorated and furnished to a very quality throughout in an understated, chic contemporary Provencal style, the rooms are spacious and courtesy of the fair sized windows, benefit from having a light and airy feel.

The property looks onto a very well maintained lush garden of 6,500sqm the centre piece of which is a heated pool of 15.5 x 4.5m which is of course alarmed and has a sun bathing terrace surround, there is also a small relaxation corner pool complete with air-jets, so that those who wish to swim against the current can do so. Beyond the property boundary one has distant views of les Alpilles.

Other impressive features to note. Is the immense 100sqm summer lounge with 6m high ceiling, which features a fully equipped kitchen, including American fridge/freezer, range, gas BBQ, plancha and dishwasher, a magnificent dining table; that can seat up to 24 people, a large Provencal fireplace, a TV, DVD, Home Cinema and large wrought iron French windows that overlook the pool, garden and pretty central fountain. Next door to which, is a fully equipped fitness room, with sauna, exercise machines, CD player, walk-in shower and separate WC.

Location

Les Alpilles are a small rocky range of hills in Provence, which stretch from the Rhone to the Durance rivers. The peaks of which are an imposing mix of bare limestone and scrub or garrigue, whilst the lower slopes and surrounding countryside are rich in olive groves, vineyards, cypress, pine, almond trees and sunflowers.

Above all else, what is particularly striking is the magical quality and luminescence of the light, which has been the inspiration of a host of painters, the most famous of which, being Vincent Van Gogh.

The region boasts some of Provence`s most famous tourist sites, such as the Roman ruins of Glanum, the medieval hilltop village of Les Baux-de-Provence and the stylish little town of Saint-Remy-de-Provence, which was the birthplace and home of Nostradamus.

Several pretty and typical Provencal villages encircle Les Alpilles; Maussane, Mouries, Fontvieille, Eygalières, Le Paradou and Maillane. With stone built houses, clustered around Romanesque churches, open squares shaded by plane trees, fountains, charming cafes, restaurants and weekly markets -all have their own distinct character and charm.

Whilst further afield and yet all within easy striking distance, are, the papal walled town of Avignon, the Roman town of Arles, the spectacular Camargue, vibrant Aix-en-Provence and France`s second city the port of Marseille, currently celebrating Europe`s Capital of Culture.
