Just on the edge of the traditional Greek village of Kostos, this is a classic Cycladic style holiday home. The internal areas are bright, light and airy with modern furnishings in neutral tones with the odd splash of colour. The main living area is open plan in style with tiled floors and fireplace plus comfortable seating areas, whilst the dining area has a distinctly contemporary style, all in soft whites hues. There is also a study area with desk for those that need to log on (there is full WiFi), plus a modern, well equipped kitchen. There are five bedrooms in the main house and a further one-bedroom guest house available. Included is a cook service for breakfast and lunch or dinner six times a week, plus daily cleaning six days a week.

Kostos is small village untouched on the whole by tourism, with Cycladic architecture, whitewashed houses and beautiful churches plus a small square where one can have a coffee in a traditional cafeteria. In the village there is a grocery shop, local market. The two cafes also operate as tavernas. The village can be reached on foot (albeit no pavement). The nearest beaches are at Ysterni 4 km or Molos 5 km. Paros airport is 8 km.
