Overview

A perfect combination of a resolutely modern and contemporary living space with intimate and private interiors. Beach in walking distance.

Description

The Valinco: A perfect combination of a resolutely modern and contemporary living space with intimate and private interiors. Beach in walking distance.

Minimum stay 2 weeks in summer, Sunday arrivals.

Surrounded by a carefully landscaped garden dotted with oak trees, olive trees and strawberry bushes, the house overlooks a 26-metre infinity pool that appears to drift seamlessly into the bay and features direct access to the beach. A pool house, lounge, dining room and outdoor kitchen also face this wild and idyllic setting, perfect for enjoying each moment of the soft Corsican summer while taking in the scents of wood and lemongrass.

The house features a simple, modern and elegant interior with a mix of sleek lines and pastel tones. A modern fireplace dominates the spacious central living space, which is divided into a large contemporary lounge with crude charm, dining room with a glass table for up to 10 guests and a fully equipped American-style kitchen. The abundant light that seeps in through the enormous bay windows is an integral part of this neat and modern dcor, with the Gulf of Valinco in the background.

Each of the villas 5 bedrooms, with their futuristic undertones and harmonious lines, has a private space that includes a bathroom with flat screen and an open terrace with an extraordinary view of the water.
