Description

Olhos D'Agua: Villa Singa is the epitome of a luxury villa stay: perched above one of the finest beaches on the Algarve, it offers stunning coastal views and direct beach access.

Located off a quiet road on the edge of Olhos D'Agua, this is a most elegant property offering on site staff and an exceptionally high standard of accommodation featuring five suites, superb sea views, multiple indoor and outdoor living and dining areas and a range of high-end amenities. Designed by architect Joao Coutinho, the property is split over two levels - the entry level includes the main living area, two kitchens and a wonderful enclosed courtyard, perfect for relaxing morning breakfasts or afternoon tea. There is one bedroom on this level, plus a second living area with TV.

Guests can take either the stairs or lift to the lower level where the additional bedrooms can be found, as well as a host of luxurious additional rooms including a gym (with glass front, perfect to watch over the sea whilst working out), sauna, steam room and wine cellar. Outside provides several well thought out sitting and dining areas including the fully stocked outdoor kitchen and the large heatable infinity swimming pool.

From the grounds, one can walk down a path to the beach and enjoy direct access to the water - or simply relax with the amazing sunsets in the gardens.
